WENDY?
AYAME?
SAMANTHA?

NONON?
INORI?
LALA?
SATONE?
MR. WHISKERS?
YUNO?

SNAP

this displeases me

are you being serious?

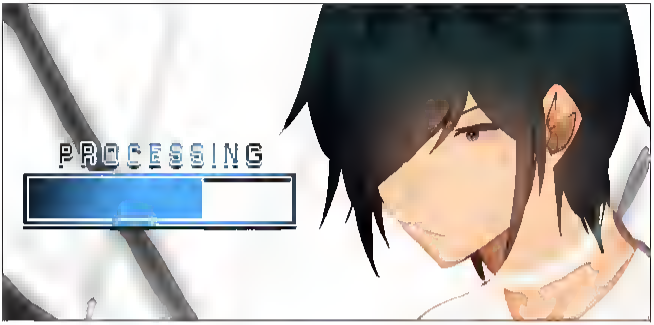
I MEAN... YOU JUST WANT ME TO NAME YOU, RIGHT?

KIND OF LIKE A PET...

Excuse me?

I am not the pet here
HMFPH
If anything, you're the one acting like the dumb animal right now.

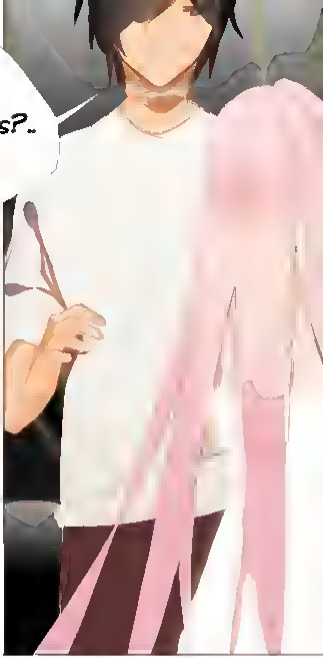


PROCESSING

Hey, hey
Don't give me
that face.
You're a big boy

you'll figure it out... eventually

Anyway, now that I've got that settled for the most part...



I've wondered this ever since we first started communicating why it is that I can't see your voice when you talk?

MY VOICE? WHAT DO YOU MEAN?

Don't play stupid

You can see all sound in colors, and you predominantly look at voices.

You know, there's so much that you can do to take advantage of this ability.

Too bad you're letting its potential go to waste.

WHAT ADVANTAGES?

Learn to be a little creative, Leon

It can prove to be useful in everyday life not to mention in battle (if you put some effort into practicing) Might even save your life

...IN BATTLE? HOW IS SEEING COLORFUL AURAS SUPPOSED TO HELP?

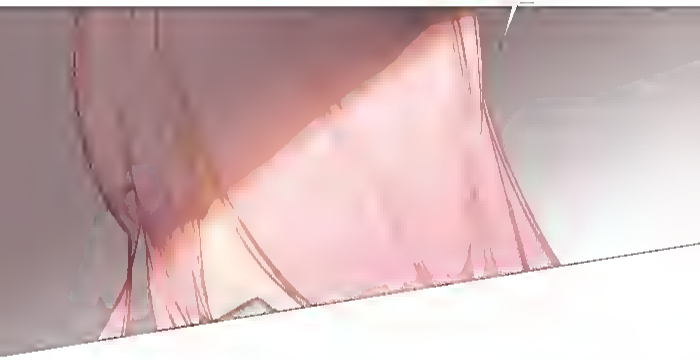
I know you're dying to learn some new tricks right now...

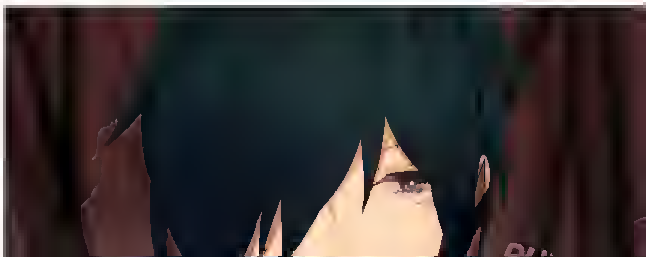
--but it will have to wait until next time.

BUT THERE'S STILL SO MUCH I NEED TO ASK!

EVERYTHING YOU SAID ONLY LEADS TO MORE QUESTIONS!
Well yeah, but there is literally no time in this urgent situation
You can ask me later

Remember this,
Leon





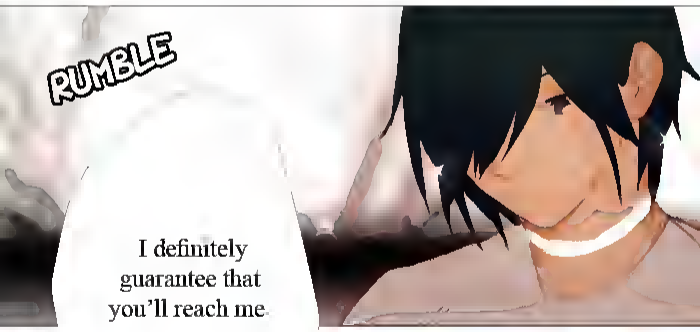
You have to promise...

When it finally hits you, don't forget it ok?

my name.

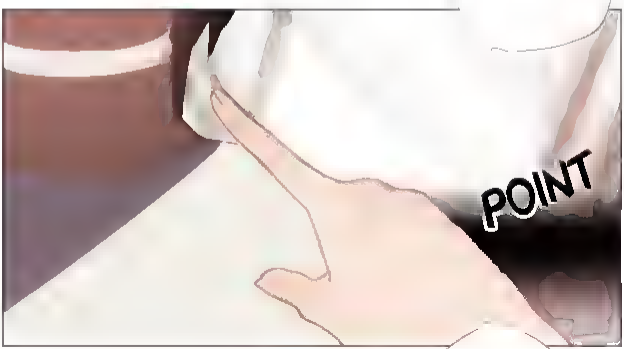
RUMBLE
The next time we meet, I may not be as easy to approach, or talk to.
I might end up not remembering a lot of things at first, but it's only fair because you can't either, haha.

But if you call out to me during that time,



--And by that time, I'll give you what you came in here for in the first place.

Anyways--



Your fast exit

Now, quickly!
There's no time to stick around

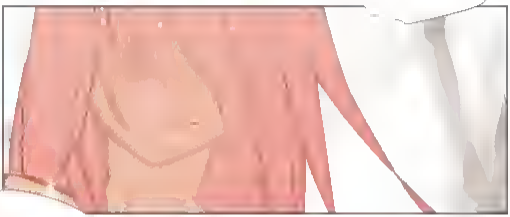
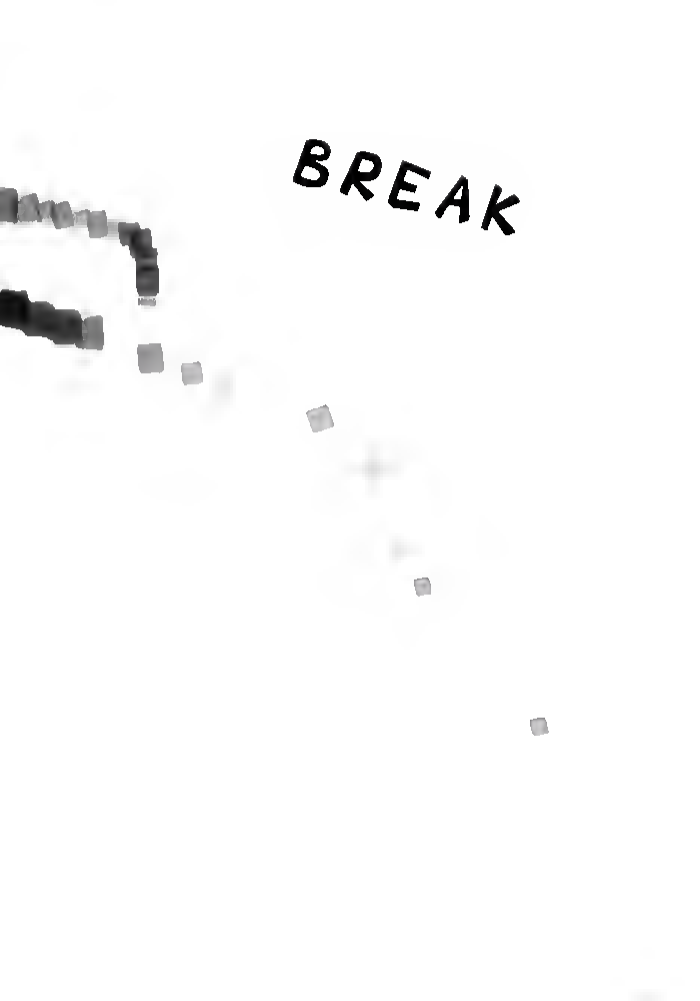
..RIGHT..

I'LL SEE YOU THEN.

mhm



I'll see you very soon



BREAK

Good luck
